

Please do not overturn media ownerships regulations, as doing so would, at least, open the door to potential media monopolies, allowing the relaying of information and the development of cultural ideals and movement to be control solely by corporate power.